

The Society for Post-Acute and Long-Term Care Medicine has published a statement regarding the reopening of Post-Acute and Long-Term Care Facilities. The statement urges federal, state, and local governments and health authorities to stipulate that these facilities be the last to open to visitors and outside contractors and vendors.

Read the entire statement here:

<http://paltc.org/sites/default/files/AMDA%20Statement%20on%20PALTC%20facilities%20reopening%20FINAL%2005MAY2020.pdf>